

The Nihilists

A one day visual art event by Stehfan Caddick, with a sound performance by Team Sports

Dusk (8-10PM), Saturday 16th July 2011

Sugar Loaf, Abergavenny (starting from Mynydd Llanwenarth Car Park, Grid Ref: SO268167)

The Nihilists is a series of outdoor installations temporarily located on the Sugar Loaf mountain near Abergavenny. The installations generate electricity in order to illuminate their futility.

Team Sports (Matthew Lovett, Jimmy Ottley & Ian Watson) is a sound performance that explores the relationship between a musician and their surroundings. Using the physical environment as a musical score, the group respond to sounds, visual stimuli, and other environmental occurrences to create a piece that engages with all aspects of the sound continuum.

For more information, directions, a map and cancellation in the event of heavy rain, please visit the website:

<http://stefhancaddick.co.uk/the-nihilists>

For information about Team Sports visit:

<http://matthewlovett.wordpress.com/>

This event was made possible with the generous support of The National Trust.
The Nihilists was developed with the support of Powys County Council's Chance to Create Scheme.

